Akkoo Coffee

“ Akkoo ” is a word in the Afaan Oromoo language
(one of the widely spoken languages in Ethiopia) meaning “ Grand-mother ”.
So, for Akkoo Coffee i combined the idea of a loving caring grand mother with a coffee bean and made a logo that is simple yet deep in meaning and directly related to Akkoo Coffee's original idea.

KEHELOT

“ Kehelot ” (Amharic Word) wich translates to “ Skill ” in english is the ability to do something well. the design idea behind Kehelot is a combination of a persons face from ethiopians art and the universal symbol of creativity and skill wich is represented internationally by a light bulb, generally the idea behind Kehelot is a persons skill and expertise in their field of work.

Nor Furniture

The word “ Nor ” in the Amharic language refers to both welcoming and greeting.
So what better way to greet and welcome a guest to our home than saying Nor and inviting them to rest in a house full of furnitures from “ Nor ” Furniture.
For Nor Furniture the idea was just there on their logo but i thought to my self that it needed a little touch and that’s what i did.
